

PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS –ENGLISH LAW

1.01 ACCEPTANCE AND APPLICABILITY OF TERMS

(a) Acceptance; Terms and Conditions of Contract.

“Buyer” and “Seller” are the respective entities so identified in this Purchase Order, and the “Ordered Items” are those items (which may include both goods and services, including any components therein) that Buyer offers to purchase from Seller by delivery of this Purchase Order. The terms and conditions of this Purchase Order are the only terms that govern the purchase of the Ordered Items by Buyer from Seller. Except as provided in Section 1(e) hereof, the Purchase Order and these terms comprise the entire agreement between the parties, and supersede all prior or contemporaneous understandings, agreement, negotiations, representations and warranties, and communications, both written and oral, with respect to the purchase and sale of the Ordered Items. These terms prevail over any of Seller’s general terms and conditions of sale regardless of whether or when Seller has submitted its sales confirmation of such terms.

(b) Purchase Order as an Offer.

If this Purchase Order constitutes an offer by Buyer to purchase the Ordered Items specified herein, Seller’s acceptance of such offer is subject to and expressly conditioned upon Seller’s consent to the terms and conditions specified herein. Seller shall indicate its acceptance of Buyer’s offer by verbal acceptance communicated to Buyer, by written acceptance of this Purchase Order received by Buyer, by Seller’s acceptance of payment from Buyer, by commencing work on this Purchase Order in any manner, expressly conditioned on notice of such commencement of work received by Buyer, or by” Seller’s shipment of any Ordered Items to Buyer”. If Buyer has not received Seller’s acceptance within ten days after the date of this Purchase Order, then Buyer may withdraw this offer without liability to Seller.

(c) Variance in Seller’s Acceptance.

Buyer objects to and rejects any attempt by Seller to vary in any degree any of the terms of the offer contained in this Purchase Order, or any proposal by Seller for additional or different terms. Any proposed terms by Seller that are different from or in addition to those contained in this Purchase Order shall be of no effect unless accepted in writing by Buyer. Any such proposal by Seller that includes variances in description, quantity, price or delivery schedule shall operate as a rejection and counter-offer. Any other such proposal by Seller shall not operate as a rejection of this offer, but shall be deemed a material alteration thereof, and Seller shall be deemed to have accepted the offer contained in this Purchase Order without said additional or different terms if Seller ships any Ordered Item to Buyer.

(c) Purchase Order as an Acceptance.

If this Purchase Order is construed as an acceptance of Seller’s offer, this acceptance is expressly conditioned on Seller’s assent to any additional or different terms contained in this Purchase Order.

(e) Other Agreements.

If the Parties have previously entered into a separate written agreement pertaining to the purchase and sale of the Ordered Items that remains in effect (save for any standard terms of the Seller which are hereby expressly rejected by Buyer), this Purchase Order is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in that agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order and the terms and conditions of that agreement, the terms and conditions of that agreement shall prevail.

1.02 PRICE AND PAYMENT

(a) Invoices and Statements.

Unless otherwise agreed, Seller will send a separate invoice for each shipment of Ordered Items. The invoice must include the description, quantity and price of each Ordered Item shipped, and the number of this Purchase Order, including the release number if the shipment is against a blanket Purchase Order.

(b) Price.

If Seller’s price for any Ordered Item is higher than the price stated in this Purchase Order for such item on the date of shipment, the Purchase Order price will prevail.

(c) “Most Favoured Nation.”

Each invoice sent by Seller shall be deemed to certify that the prices for the Ordered Items are not less favourable than those currently extended to any other customer for the same or like articles in equal or lesser quantities. If Seller reduces its prices for such articles before this order is shipped, Seller will reduce the prices to Buyer correspondingly.

(d) Taxes.

Except as otherwise specifically agreed or as required by law, Seller will pay or assume all taxes imposed upon, or in connection with, the sale of the Ordered Items, including any and all taxes on any property in the possession of Seller until its delivery to Buyer, including property described in Paragraph 3.02(b) (“Use of Buyer’s Property”), whether taxable to Buyer or Seller under applicable law. Any applicable sales tax, duty, excise tax, use tax or other similar tax or charge for which Buyer has not furnished an exemption certificate must be separately itemized on the invoice. If, under applicable law, Buyer is required to withhold any tax on payments to Seller, Buyer will deduct such amounts from the amounts owed under Seller’s invoice and remit the applicable taxes withheld to the appropriate taxing authority. Upon request, Buyer will furnish Seller with the official receipt of payment of these taxes to the appropriate taxing authority.

(e) Set-off.

Any discount and late payment periods shall run from the later of (1) the date Buyer receives an acceptable invoice and (2) the date Buyer receives and accepts the Ordered Items. Buyer may offset any claims or amounts due to Seller under this Purchase Order or otherwise against any claims or amounts owed by Seller to Buyer by reason of this Purchase Order or otherwise.

1.03 SHIPPING, DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

(a) Schedule.

Postponement by Buyer. Deliveries shall be completed strictly in accordance with the quantities and schedules specified in this Purchase Order, time being of the essence of Seller’s obligation. Buyer may postpone delivery of any of the Ordered Items for up to one week (or the length of time, if any, indicated as a “Permissible Delay” elsewhere in this Purchase Order). Any material commitments or production arrangements in excess of the amount or in advance of the time necessary to meet ordered quantities and delivery schedules are made at Seller’s own risk.

Early Shipment. If Seller ships Ordered Items ahead of schedule so that Ordered Items are received by Buyer in excess of five (or in the case of international shipment, ten) working days prior to the scheduled date of receipt, Buyer reserves the right either (1) to return the Ordered Items to Seller at Seller’s expense or (2) to extend the payment terms for the received Ordered Items by the number of days received early.

Delayed Shipment. If, at any time, it appears Seller may not meet the delivery schedule in this Purchase Order, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer of the cause and estimated duration of any delay. Seller shall, upon request by Buyer, take all reasonable steps to prevent such delay (or such portion thereof as Buyer requires) by appropriate methods, including (without limitation) incurring expenditures for overtime and expedited shipment by air or other means of expedited transport. Any costs incurred by Seller to reduce or prevent such delay shall be borne solely by Seller, unless the delay in delivery arises out of causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of Seller or its subcontractors within the meaning of Section 3.01(b) ("Force Majeure"). If because of such a delay by Seller, Buyer is required to obtain substitute items in order to satisfy the requirements of Buyer's customer, then Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any resulting costs or damages, including without limitation the excess of the cost of such substitute items over the price under this Agreement, and any costs relating to expedited shipment made necessary by Seller's delay.

(b) Quantity.

Except as otherwise specified or approved by Buyer in writing, Seller shall ship exact quantities of Ordered Items specified in this Purchase Order. Notwithstanding any custom or practice to the contrary, Buyer shall not be required to receive or pay for any variance in the quantity of Ordered Items. Buyer may adjust Seller's invoice for over-shipment, shortage and rejection, or return excess shipments or under-shipments at Seller's expense.

(c) Charges.

No charges of any kind, including without limitation charges for boxing, packaging, transportation, cartage, storage, or freight insurance, will be allowed unless agreed by Buyer in writing. Price based on weight shall be determined according to net weight of the Ordered Items without packaging, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Buyer.

(d) Documentation.

Original bills of lading (or equivalent documents) shall be delivered to Buyer's Purchasing Department or as otherwise directed by Buyer. In the case of a drop shipment to Buyer's customer, Seller shall send to Buyer two copies of the packing list at time of shipment.

(e) Packing and Shipping.

Seller shall pack, mark and ship all Ordered Items in accordance with the requirements of this Purchase Order and all applicable transportation regulations. Subject to the preceding sentence, Seller shall ship freight collect using an account number provided by Buyer. Buyer will not be responsible for freight charges on any in-bound freight not using approved carriers. Any prepay and add charges will be deducted from invoices unless authorized by Buyer in writing, in advance of shipment. Any declared value for insurance will be charged back to the Seller. Any expense, damage or liability incurred by Buyer as a result of improper preservation, packing, packaging, marking or method of shipment for Ordered Items shall be reimbursed by Seller upon demand.

(f) Inspection.

(1) Ordered Items Subject to Inspection. All Ordered Items are subject to inspection and testing by Buyer or its designee at all times prior to shipment by Seller.

(2) Return of Rejected Ordered Items. If any Ordered Items are found to be defective in material or workmanship (including Ordered Items damaged because of unsatisfactory packaging by Seller), or otherwise not in strict conformity with the requirements of this Purchase Order, including drawings and specifications and approved samples, if any, then Buyer, in addition to any other rights and remedies which it may have under this Purchase Order or applicable law, has the right in its sole discretion to (a) reject and return such Ordered Items at Seller's expense and to receive a full credit for any such rejected Ordered Items, (b) require correction or replacement of any such rejected Ordered Items without additional cost to Buyer, or (c) retain and use the Ordered Items with an equitable reduction in purchase price. Rejected Ordered Items returned to Seller shall not be reshipped to Buyer without prior written authorization. Seller shall bear all risks as to rejected Ordered Items after notice of rejection. Payment shall not be construed as constituting acceptance.

(3) Seller's Quality Control System. Seller shall provide and maintain a quality control system acceptable to Buyer for Ordered Items. Records of all inspection work by Seller shall be kept accurate and complete and available to Buyer during the performance of this Purchase Order and until final inspection and acceptance of the Ordered Item, and for any longer period of time required by law. Buyer's exercise of the right of inspection shall not constitute or be deemed to be Buyer's acceptance of the Ordered Items. Buyer's acceptance of the Ordered Items shall not relieve Seller of any obligation with respect to any warranties or conditions, express or implied, with respect to the Ordered Items, and is without prejudice to Buyer's rights in the event of latent defects, fraud, or gross errors)

(4) Title and Risk of Loss.

Seller shall not reserve title or a security interest in goods shipped to Buyer. Seller shall deliver the Ordered Items in accordance with the terms of shipment specified in the Purchase Order, and the risk of loss of the Ordered Items will transfer in accordance with such terms. Notwithstanding such terms of shipment, however, title to the Ordered Items will transfer from Seller to Buyer only upon receipt of the Ordered Items at Buyer's facility (or, in the case of a consignment arrangement, upon Buyer's use of the Ordered Items).

1.04 WARRANTY AND SERVICE

(a) Terms of Warranty.

Seller includes the following warranties and conditions with respect to all Ordered Items delivered under this Purchase Order, including packaging: The Ordered Items (1) will be merchantable, (2) will be of satisfactory quality, (3) will be free from defects in workmanship and material, and in the case of software will be free from disabling or malicious code, (4) will comply with the terms of this Purchase Order and all applicable specifications, performance criteria, drawings or samples, (5) will not contain asbestos in any form, and, (6) to the extent such items are not manufactured pursuant to detailed designs furnished by Buyer, will be free from defects in design and suitable for their intended use. Deliveries of valves and pressure components of valves must be in compliance with Pressure Equipment Directive PED 97/23/EG, if applicable. Buyer's approval of designs furnished by Seller or any approval of Seller's "First Article" shall not relieve Seller of its obligations under this warranty. The aforesaid warranties and conditions are in addition to all other warranties and conditions to which Buyer is entitled under this Purchase Order or by law and do not constitute a waiver of any rights of Buyer, expressed or implied.

(b) Benefit of Warranty.

All of Seller's warranties are enforceable by Buyer, Buyer's affiliates, successors and assigns, Buyer's customers and any subsequent owner or operator of the Ordered Items. Any inspection or acceptance of such Items by Buyer shall not be deemed to alter, waive, extinguish or otherwise affect the obligations of Seller or the rights of Buyer or any other beneficiary of any warranty.

(c) Duration of Warranty.

Unless otherwise documented in this Purchase Order or otherwise agreed by Buyer and Seller, all warranties and conditions shall run from the date of receipt of the Ordered Items by Buyer for a period of three years.

(d) Remedies.

In the event of any breach of warranty or condition, Buyer, at its option, may require Seller (1) to replace the defective Ordered Items; (2) to correct such defect or failure in whole or in part; or (3) to provide an equitable reduction in the price. Such optional right of Buyer shall not be construed to negate, replace or limit, but is in addition to, any rights of Buyer arising under this Purchase Order or at law.

1.05 LIABILITY

(a) Representations and Warranties.

Seller represents, warrants and covenants the Ordered Items, and Buyer's and Buyer's customers use thereof, do not and will not infringe or violate any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, mask work right, or other proprietary right of others, and that Seller has, owns, will obtain, or has otherwise procured all right, title, and interest, including any necessary licenses, to the Ordered Items. Seller represents and warrants that in connection with its performance in manufacturing or otherwise supplying the Ordered Items hereunder, Seller will not infringe or violate any patent, copyright, trade secret, mask work right, or any other proprietary right of any third party.

(b) Indemnity.

Seller hereby agrees to defend and indemnify and to save and hold Buyer, its affiliates, agents, employees, customers, successors and assigns (“Indemnitees”) harmless from and against any and all suits, claims, liabilities, losses, damages, demands, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising out of or claimed to have arisen out of or in connection with or by reason of (1) any act or omission or any breach of express or implied warranties or conditions by Seller, its affiliates, agents, employees, successors or assigns or (2) the use or sale by Indemnitees of the Ordered Items purchased hereunder; provided, however, Buyer shall notify Seller of any such suit, claim or demand and shall permit Seller to control the defence or settlement thereof.

Seller shall indemnify and hold Indemnitees harmless from any losses, liabilities, damages, or expenses, including (without limitation) attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in connection therewith, which may be incurred on account of any actual or alleged infringement or violation of any applicable patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, mask work right, or other proprietary right of others, with respect to such Ordered Items.

To the extent the Ordered Items are manufactured to specific design specifications provided by Buyer, this indemnity shall not apply to any alleged or actual infringement or violation arising from the Ordered Items when such infringement or violation is proximately caused by the Buyer’s specific design specifications. For the avoidance of doubt, Buyer’s specification requiring compliance with an industry standard shall not be considered a specific design specification provided by Buyer.

(c) Remedies Cumulative; No Waiver.

The remedies set forth in these Terms and Conditions are cumulative and additional to any other or further remedies provided by law. No failure by Buyer to exercise any of its rights hereunder and no partial or single exercise thereof shall constitute a waiver of such rights. No waiver by Buyer of any obligation or breach of any provision or provisions hereof shall constitute a waiver of any other obligation, past or future, hereunder or any recurring breach of this or any other Purchase Order.

(d) Work on the Premises of Buyer or Buyer’s Customer.

If Seller’s work under this Purchase Order involves operations by Seller on the premises of Buyer or Buyer’s customer, Seller shall take all necessary precautions to prevent the occurrence of any injury to persons or damage to property during the progress of such work. Except to the extent that any such injury is due solely and directly to Buyer’s or its customer’s negligence, as the case may be, Seller shall defend and indemnify, save and hold Buyer and its customer, as the case may be, harmless from and against any and all suits, liabilities, demands, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) for injuries to persons, loss of life or damage to property arising out of or claimed to have arisen out of or in connection with or by reason of any act or omission of Seller, its affiliates, agents, employees or subcontractors, and Seller will protect Buyer or customer, as the case may be, from said risks and from any corresponding claims under any applicable law or regulation including workman’s compensation acts.

(e) Insurance.

Except as Buyer may otherwise agree, Seller will maintain insurance in such amount and scope as are adequate to cover its obligations under this Purchase Order, including: (i) Commercial General Liability for bodily injury and property damage including premises/operations, products/completed operations, property damage and contractual liability coverage, not less than $3,000,000 per occurrence; (ii) if applicable, Automobile Liability covering owned, hired, and non-owned vehicles with minimum limits of $1,000,000 combined single limit each occurrence; and (iii) if applicable, Worker’s Compensation insurance in accordance with the laws of the state with jurisdiction and Employer’s Liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000.. Buyer, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers, employees, and agents will be named an additional insured on Seller’s Commercial General Liability policy (with respect to all products and services to be provided by Seller hereunder) and Automobile Liability (if applicable), and Seller’s insurance will be primary on behalf of the additional insureds and any policies of the additional insureds shall be non-contributory. If Seller will have custody of tooling, test equipment, or other property belonging to Buyer pursuant to Section 3.02(b), Seller will maintain broad form property damage insurance naming Buyer as loss payee and insuring replacement value of property in the care, custody and control of Seller, as applicable. Prior to commencement of work, Seller will provide Buyer certificates of insurance evidencing the required insurance policies, including evidence of additional insured status. Each of the above policies will provide Buyer with at least 30 days’ prior written notice of any cancellation, non-renewal or material change in coverage. Such insurance shall be placed with reputable insurance companies licensed or authorized to do business in the state in which the property is located with a minimum Best’s rating of A-:X. Should Seller engage the services of any subcontractor to perform work in the property, then Seller shall ensure that such subcontractor maintains insurance in substantially the same forms and amounts as are required of Seller under this Purchase Order.

(f) Limitation on Buyer’s Liability.

Nothing in these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions limits any liability which cannot legally be limited, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, breach of the terms implied by Section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979; or defective products under the Consumer Protection Act 1987. Subject to the foregoing sentence, in no event shall Buyer be liable for the following types of loss: (i) loss of profits; (ii) loss of sales or business; (iii) loss of agreements or contracts; (iv) loss of anticipated savings; (v) loss of use or corruption of software, data or information; (vi) loss of or damage to goodwill; and (vii) indirect, consequential or remote loss. The provisions of this clause shall survive termination of these Purchase Order Terms and Conditions.

2.01 COMMUNICATIONS AND REPORTING

Seller shall not advertise or publish the fact that it has furnished, or contracted to furnish, the Ordered Items to Buyer, or disclose any details of this Purchase Order to any party, without prior written consent of Buyer.

2.02 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Parties agree to submit any and all claims, demands, disputes, controversies, differences or misunderstandings arising out of or relating to this Purchase Order, or the failure or refusal to perform the whole or any part hereof, to binding arbitration conducted in accordance with the arbitration rules of the London Court of International Arbitration, except where those rules conflict with this provision, in which case this provision controls. Arbitration shall be conducted before a single arbitrator unless the amount in dispute exceeds £250,000. If the amount in dispute exceeds £250,000, it shall be decided by three arbitrators, one to be selected by each party and the two party-appointed arbitrators to agree upon the third. The arbitration shall be held in London, England, or in another location if agreed by Buyer and Seller. The arbitrators shall be authorized to award costs and attorney’s fees or to allocate them between the parties. Any court with jurisdiction shall enforce this clause and enter judgment on any award. Except as required by law, the parties (including their counsel), the witnesses, and the arbitrator may not disclose the existence, contents, or results of any arbitration without the prior written consent of both parties. Any documentary or other evidence produced in any arbitration shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third party (other than a witness or expert), except as required by law or except if such evidence was obtained from the public domain or is otherwise obtained independently of the arbitration. The parties expressly consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England, with respect to enforcement of their rights under this arbitration Section.

2.03 AUDITS/INSPECTION

(a) Inspection by Buyer.

Any authorized representative of Buyer may inspect or audit Seller or Seller's subcontractors' facilities and processes engaged in the performance of this Purchase Order, and may inspect and test the Ordered Items to be delivered under this Purchase Order to the extent practicable at any time, whether before or after acceptance. If any such audit, inspection or test is made by Buyer, Seller shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of the personnel involved.

(b) Process Changes.

Seller shall notify Buyer not less than 90 days in advance of any proposed changes to Seller's manufacturing processes, composition or grade of raw materials used, critical process sources, equipment or facilities that may impact the quality, acceptability, reliability or on-time delivery of the Ordered Items, including any proposed relocations of manufacturing or assembly facilities that produce the Ordered Items. Any such changes must be planned and coordinated between Buyer and Seller prior to implementation and shall not be made without Buyer's written approval; if Seller implements such changes without Buyer's written agreement, this may render the Ordered Items defective and Buyer may reject the items or may terminate this Purchase Order under Section 3.01(d).

3.01 GENERAL TERMS; TERMINATION

(a) Entire Agreement.

When this Purchase Order is signed by Buyer or Buyer's authorized representative and accepted (pursuant to Section 1.01 above or otherwise), it constitutes a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement between Seller and Buyer with respect to its subject matter, subject to the terms of Section 1.01(d) regarding other written agreements. "Signing" includes the use of fax, email, electronically generated signatures or any other act intended to authenticate the agreement and bind the parties.

(b) Force Majeure.

(1) Failure to Perform. Buyer is not liable for delay in acceptance of Ordered Items, and Seller is not liable for delay in shipment, to the extent occasioned by events beyond such party's reasonable control and without its fault or negligence, such as war, strikes, fires, natural disasters, catastrophic weather events, acts of terrorism, acts of a public enemy, acts of governments, transportation difficulties, or other such causes.

(2) Labour Disputes. Whenever Seller is aware that any actual or potential labour dispute is delaying or threatens to delay the timely performance or delivery of this Purchase Order, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer. If such a delay extends for a period greater than ten days, Buyer may terminate this Purchase Order on notice to Seller, and such a termination will be considered a Termination for Convenience under paragraph 3.01(c).

(c) Termination for Convenience.

Buyer may terminate any Ordered Item under this Purchase Order in whole or in part at any time by written notice. In the event of such termination, Buyer and Seller agree that an equitable settlement payment for the terminated portion of this Purchase Order shall consist of Seller's provable costs to date of termination plus a reasonable profit thereon, less any value recoverable by Seller. There shall be no allowance for potential or anticipated profits, overhead costs or otherwise.

(d) Termination for Default.

(1) Termination by Buyer. Buyer may terminate work under this Purchase Order in whole or in part pursuant to Section 2.03(b) ("Process Changes"), or if Seller fails to:

(i) deliver the Ordered Items required by this Purchase Order within ten days after Seller's receipt of notice from Buyer of Seller's failure to provide such delivery within the time(s) specified in this Purchase Order, or

(ii) provide full performance of any other requirement of this Purchase Order in strict compliance with the terms hereof within ten days of Seller's receipt of notice from Buyer specifying such failure, or

(iii) provide adequate assurances of progress within ten days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's demand therefor.

(2) Transfer of Completed Ordered Items. If Buyer terminates this Purchase Order in whole or part pursuant to this Section 3.01(d), Buyer may require Seller to transfer title and deliver to Buyer, in the manner and to the extent directed by Buyer, (i) any completed Ordered Items, and (ii) such partially completed Ordered Items and materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, plans, drawings, and information or similar items (hereinafter called "Manufacturing Material"), as the Seller has produced or acquired for the performance of this Purchase Order; and Seller shall, upon direction of Buyer, protect and preserve any property in Seller's possession in which Buyer has an interest. Payment for completed Ordered Items delivered to and accepted by Buyer shall be at the Purchase Order price (or part thereof). Payment for Manufacturing Materials delivered to and accepted by Buyer and for the protection and preservation of such property shall be at a price determined by agreement of the parties.

(3) Assignment of Rights. If Buyer terminates this Purchase Order in whole or part pursuant to this Section 3.01(d), Seller shall provide to Buyer all information Buyer shall reasonably require concerning Seller's purchase orders, subcontracts or similar rights for materials, services or facilities necessary for the completion of this Purchase Order, and Buyer may require Seller to assign to Buyer some or all of Seller's right, title and interest in such purchase orders, subcontracts or other documents. In the event of such an assignment,

(i) Buyer shall not be liable for any amount in excess of the reasonable value of the items received by Buyer (not to exceed that portion of the unpaid purchase price reasonably allocable to such items), and (ii) except to the extent of such reasonable value, Seller shall hold Buyer harmless from all liability, damages, claims, expenses, or loss, including (without limitation) attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection therewith, related to such assigned orders, subcontracts or rights.

(4) Seller Liable for Cost of Cover. If Buyer terminates this Purchase Order in whole or part pursuant to this Section 3.01(d), Buyer may procure substitute items from alternate sources and in such manner as it may deem appropriate and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for the excess of the total cost of such replacement Ordered Items over the total price Buyer would have paid for such items under this Purchase Order. The rights of Buyer provided in this clause shall be in addition to any other rights provided by law or this Purchase Order.

(5) Insolvency of Seller. Without limiting any other provision of this Purchase Order, Buyer may, by written notice to Seller, cancel the whole or any part of this Purchase Order in the event of suspension of Seller's business; insolvency of Seller; institution of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement or liquidation proceedings by or against Seller; appointment of a trustee, administrator or receiver for Seller's property or business; any assignment by Seller for the benefit of creditors. If Buyer in good faith believes that Seller may be financially incapable of performing its obligations hereunder in strict compliance with the provisions hereof, it may demand written assurances of Seller's ability to perform, and failing Buyer's receipt of such assurances within five days of Buyer's demand, Buyer may cancel the whole or any part of this Purchase Order. The circumstances described in this subsection shall be deemed defaults, which shall entitle Buyer to exercise any of its remedies described above.

(e) Applicable Law.

(1) The construction, validity and performance of and all non-contractual obligations arising from or connected with this Purchase Order is governed by and shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The parties hereby exclude application of the U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods from this Purchase Order and any transaction between them related thereto.

(2) Seller shall comply with all applicable Federal, national, provincial, state and local laws, rules and regulations and, on request, shall furnish Buyer with such certificates or other evidence of compliance as may be reasonably requested by Buyer or other authorities.

(f) Assignment and Subcontracting.

Seller shall not contract with any other party to furnish any of the completed or substantially completed Ordered Items, and shall not assign, novate, sub-license or otherwise transfer any of its rights or delegate any of its duties under this Purchase Order without the prior written consent of Buyer. In the event of an assignment not prohibited hereunder, payment to an assignee in accordance with any such assignment shall be subject to setoff or recoupment for any present or future claims by Buyer against Seller or such assignee. Buyer reserves the right to make, without notice to Seller's assignee, direct settlements and/or adjustments in price (or other terms) with Seller notwithstanding any assignment, and the right to make, without notice to Seller, direct settlement and/or adjustments in price (or other terms) with Seller's assignee.

(g) Offset Credits.

This section 3.01(g) applies only to Purchase Orders in excess of Thirty Thousand Pounds Sterling (£30,000).

(1) In this section "Offset" means the obligations that Buyer undertakes, in order to market or sell its products, to assist a customer country in reducing any trade imbalance caused by that country's purchases of Buyer's products or to meet other customer country national objectives.

(2) To the exclusion of all others, Buyer or its assignees shall be entitled to all benefits or Offset credits which result from this Purchase Order. Seller shall provide such documentation or information as Buyer or its assignees may reasonably request to substantiate claims for Offset credits.

(3) Seller agrees to use reasonable efforts to identify the foreign content of items that Seller either produces itself or procures from subcontractors for work under this Purchase Order. Promptly after selection of a non-U.K. subcontractor for work under this Purchase Order, Seller shall notify Buyer of the name, address, subcontractor point of contact (including telephone number) and value of the subcontract in Sterling.

(4) Seller shall include the substance of this clause, in favour of Buyer, in its subcontracts issued at all tiers pursuant to this Purchase Order. In the event that any of the products or services procured hereunder, including any products or services subcontracted by the Seller, originates in any country other than the United Kingdom, Seller agrees to transfer all Offset credits for such purchases to Buyer. Seller further agrees to include such a clause in any purchase orders it places on its vendors, in order to permit the transfer of such Offset credits to Buyer.

(h) Rights of Third Parties

No person other than a party to this Purchase Order shall be entitled to enforce any provision in this Purchase Order (under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise).

3.02 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY/DATA RIGHTS

(a) Buyer's Intellectual Property and Rights in Inventions.

(1) All intellectual property and other rights in Buyer's intellectual property, whether in the nature of copyright, trademarks, trade secrets, or patent rights (whether registrable or not), or otherwise are to be and remain the property of Buyer absolutely. Seller undertakes that neither it nor its permitted subcontractors or any of their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents will use, reproduce, modify, adapt, or make any other use of a Buyer's intellectual property or other rights in such intellectual property without the prior written consent of the Buyer, or in any manner infringe upon the rights of the Buyer therein. Seller will not file any patent application, utility model application, or design application using or disclosing any of the Seller's intellectual property.

(2) If this Purchase Order is for an Ordered Item for which Buyer furnishes the specifications, in whole or in part, Seller hereby conveys and assigns to Buyer (i) all its right, title and interest in and to any inventions, data and knowledge (whether covering processes, formulae, designs, techniques, assembly, manufacture or otherwise and whether patentable or not patentable) conceived or first reduced to practice in connection with such Ordered Item, and (ii) a perpetual royalty-free and fully paid-up right and license (with right to sublicense) to utilize any patents, inventions, data and knowledge of Seller, or any of its subcontractors hereunder, which are incorporated in or utilized in connection with the Ordered Item delivered hereunder. Seller agrees to keep and preserve proper engineering and other records of such inventions, data and knowledge, and to make such records available to Buyer upon request. Seller agrees to execute and deliver all such documents and instruments as Buyer may, from time to time hereafter, reasonably require in order to give effect to Buyer's rights under this Section. Seller will promptly disclose to Buyer in writing any rights acquired under clause (i) hereof and will notify Buyer in writing prior to incorporating in the Ordered Item called for hereunder anything covered by an existing or pending patent of Seller or any of its subcontractors.

(b) Use of Buyer's Property.

(1) Property paid for or furnished by Buyer to Seller for the production of Ordered Items, including, without limitation, tools, jigs, dies, patterns, press plates, moulds, fixtures, offset negatives, material, equipment, drawings, designs and other information and things ("Buyer's Property") is deemed to be included in Seller's quoted price, is deemed to be the property of Buyer and shall be used exclusively for performance by Seller of this Purchase Order. Buyer's Property, and whenever practical, each individual item thereof, shall be plainly marked or otherwise adequately identified by Seller as being the property of Buyer, shall be safely stored separate and apart from Seller's property and shall be subject to examination by Buyer. Seller shall maintain Buyer's Property in proper condition and shall not encumber, destroy or dispose of such property.

(2) All Buyer's Property shall be subject to removal and return to Buyer from Seller's plant after completion or termination of this Purchase Order or of the portion hereof relating to such property, or at any time prior thereto upon the issuance of a change order reimbursing Seller for reasonable costs incurred as a result of such early removal. In the event that Buyer requests removal, Seller shall prepare Buyer's Property for shipment and shall redeliver the same to Buyer in the same condition as originally received by Seller, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

(c) License to Buyer.

Seller grants to Buyer the right to reproduce, use and disclose, in connection with the use, maintenance and service of the Ordered Items, all reports, drawings and reproductions thereof, data and technical information delivered to Buyer under this Purchase Order.

(d) License to Seller.

Seller acknowledges that, to the extent indicated by notices, legends or other markings, the drawings, specifications, prints or other data furnished by Buyer under this Purchase Order constitute or contain trade secrets that are the property of Buyer.
